The Borden Jury Returns a Verdict of Not Guilty.

WILD REJOICING IN COURT

When the Prisoner Heard the Words "You are Free" and "You are Acquitted."

New Bedford, Mass., June 20.—The jury in the Borden case returned a verdict of "not guilty" at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

District Attorney Knowlton concluded his argument at 12:05 and court took a recess for lunch, until 1:45. At 1:45 court resumed its session and the defendant was given an opportunity to speak. She said: "I am innocent, but I will leave my case in your hands, and with my counsel." Justice Dewey then charged the jury. He told them to disregard any previous hearings and to decide the case on the evidence presented. He stated the presumption of innocence, which was increased by defendant's character. There must be a real and operative motive.

After the verdict had been received the district attorney moved that the other cases against Miss Borden be held in abeyance until the order of the court was made to that effect. Chief Justice Mason then graciously thanked the jurors in appreciation of their work and faithful service and reminded them that the precautions taken with them which may have seemed rigorous at the time were solely in the interest of justice, a fact which they undoubtedly realized. The jury was then dismissed and court was adjourned until Monday next, when the regular criminal session will be commenced.

Scenes of Wild Joy.

The closing scenes in the trial were in direct contrast with those which had preceded it. Hereafter, all had been decorum and in keeping with the dignity of the most dignified court in the country. But when the verdict of "not guilty" was returned, a cheer went up which might have been heard a half a mile away through the open windows and there was no attempt to check it. The state judges looked straight ahead at the bare walls. The sheriff, Wright, was powerless to wield the gavel which lies ready for use, and not once during the tremendous excitement, which lasted fully a minute, did he make the slightest sign of having heard it. He never saw the people rising in their seats and waving their handkerchiefs in unison with their voices, because his eyes were full of tears and were completely blinded for a time.

Miss Borden Weeps.

Miss Borden's head went down upon the rail in front of her and tears came where they had refused to come for many a long day, as she heard the sweetest words ever poured into her willing ears the words "Not guilty." Mr. Jennings was almost crying and his voice broke as he put his hand out to his daughter to sit next to him and said: "Thank God!" while Miss Borden returned the pressure of the hand and seemed incapable of speech.

Governor Robinson turned to the rapidly dissolving jury as they filed out of their seats and gleamed on them with fatherly interest in his kindly eyes. As soon as possible the three men were cleared. When the spectators had finally gone, Miss Borden was taken to the room of the jurors and allowed to recover her composure with only the eyes of friends upon her and the caresses of devoted admirers. At the expiration of an hour she was placed in a carriage and driven to the station, where she took a train for Fall River, her home no longer probably, but still the only objective point for the immediate present.

ACCUSED GIVES BAIL.

Contractor Dant is Left to Shift Alone by the Government.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—No warrants were served this morning on the defendant in the verdict of the coroner's jury over the victims of the Ford's theater disaster, but Col. F. C. Ainsworth, William E. Cornell, superintendent of the theater building, and Francis S. Sasse, its engineer, appeared voluntarily in the criminal court before Judge McComas and gave bail for their appearance. When court opened at 10 o'clock R. Ross Perry, the attorney whose attempt to advise Deputy Coroner Schaeffer at the first inquest, in behalf of Colonel Ainsworth, helped to precipitate the riotous outbreak against the latter stated to Judge McComas that he represented three of the persons included in the jury's verdict, Messrs. Ainsworth, Cornell and Sasse, and that the three were prepared to give bail. Colonel Ainsworth had given a $5,000 bond last night for his appearance, but Judge McComas decided that in view of the gravity of the charge he would increase the amount of the bond to $10,000. The three defendants were prepared and sureties qualified. Contractor Dant, who was also included in the verdict of the coroner's jury, and who is reported to be suffering from nervous prostration, has apparently been left to shift for himself by the war department officials.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The president today made the following appointments: Felix G. Randolph, supervisor of customs for the port of Panama, Ky.; Andrew Fuller Fox, attorney of the United States for the northern district of Mississippi; David S. ABANDONING TRAINS.

Fires in the Upper Peninsula Sweep a Portion of Traffic.

MARQUETTE, Mich., June 20.—The bush fires burning in the outskirts of the city are still raging, though the wind is freshening from the south and driving them away from town. Thunder clouds are gathering and incite the approach of showers and alay apprehension of loss from fire, although no efforts are related in fighting that destructive element. Owing to the destruction of the bridge on the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic at Bruce's Crossing, all Duluth trains on that road have been abandoned. The wires along the road are up and as no trains from the fire scorched district is obtainable.

Arrested a Brute.

CHANDLER, Mich., June 20.—La Veen Smith, an employee of the G. R. & I. railroad company, was this morning arrested by Constable McDonald on a warrant issued by Justice DeWitt, charging him with indecent exposure. For a few nights past he has run after little girls from 8 to 14 years of age. The parents found it out and laid in ambush at 6:30 last night and caught him in the very act. It was by hard work a few friends that kept him from being roughly handled by about 100 infuriated men, who assembled at his home last evening at 7:30. His examination is being conducted.

Great Drought at Wayland.

WAYLAND, Mich., June 20.—Some weeks ago the common council of the village of Wayland raised the liquor bonds to $5,000, thus making dry the wet places in town. Resident bondsmen could not be found having the required real estate. But at a recent meeting of the council the would-be abolitionists again presented their case, which the council rejected upon the ground that one was not a resident of the village. The case will be taken to the supreme court for a verdict.

Mason's Trotting Wonder.

LANSING, Mich., June 20.—Mason Nutwood, the handsome 2-year-old colt owned by Cox Brothers of Mason, trotted a mile at the driving park Saturday in 2:25, the last quarter being made in 29.4. This is a remarkable performance in the talk of the numerous horsemen at the park, who agree that the Mason horse is the most promising two-year-old on the turf.

Insane Through Religion.

HANCOCK, Mich., June 20.—John A. Vosberg, a highly respected farmer of Greenwood township, has become insane, and steps are being taken to send him to an asylum. The crusaders have been working in this neighborhood for some time, and Mr. Vosberg's malady is attributed to religious excitement. A number of citizens ordered the crusaders to leave town.

His Ear Bitten Off.

TRINIDAD, Mich., June 20.—An altercation took place between two young men named Hoffman and Glinka in Lafayette yesterday afternoon. Young Hoffman's left ear was bitten off. For some time the two men have been angry with each other. When they met yesterday nothing was said, but they stripped their coats off and went at it. It is reported that Glinka will be arrested today.

Found After Many Months.

LUDINGTON, Mich., June 20.—The body of A. Barnett, who suddenly disappeared last fall, was this morning found in the boom among the logs opposite Butters & Peters' mill. He started across the lake one night in a storm with a small boat last October and was never heard from, though the boat was found afloat on the lake the next day.

SAGINAW, Mich., June 20.—Saginaw Hired No. 17, L. O. T. M., won its case against Ada L. Johnson, Jennie Taylor and others. The defendants were ordered to return the live property, which they held. The defendants wanted the case adjourned, but judgment was entered against them with costs.

Two Will Resign.

ANDRUS, Mich., June 20.—It is authoritatively stated that J. F. McCulloch, president of Adrian college, and J. D. H. Cornelius, professor of Greek and Latin, will resign this week. McCulloch is dissatisfied with the failure to raise the $100,000 endowment fund.

FIRE IN THE FOREST

Even, Michigan. Is Reported to Have Been Entirely Burned.

FIRE BUGS AT IRON RIVER

Incendiarists Fired a Lively Stable Twice, But the Place Was Entirely Saved—Fires of Section.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., June 20.—The forest fire along the South shore and Northern Pacific railways are still burning. At Sanborn, Lamson's lumber yard and several dwellings have been destroyed. Conductors on the South Shore report Even, Michigan, entirely devastated. The bridge at Highbridge, near Ashland, which was said to have been burned is still safe. The bridge of the South Shore near Sanborn burned Sunday night and all South Shore trains leave their tracks at Degwood, Mich., going to Ashland via the Lake Shore road, thence to Mason Junction, where they again strike their own line for this city. Settlers in the vicinity of Sanborn struggled desperately against the flames. Two children are reported to have perished at Marquette.

Work of Fire Bugs.

The fire at Iron River, Wisconsin, are claimed, by a dispatch received this afternoon, to have been the work of fire bugs. Two lively stable was set ablaze, but luckily it was extinguished before it got beyond control. The authorities are investigating the cause, and if it should turn out as suspected, the incendiaries are apprehended, a genuine old southern lyncher will be the result. In addition to the lively stable, Lon Burnham's place was also fired, but was also saved. The school building is the heaviest loss. The aggregate loss to the Iron River is all told will be about $10,000. Insurance not known. Along the South Shore and Northern Pacific railways may be seen little patches of fire from Superior to the Michigan state line and beyond. Everything is very dry, there having been no rain for several weeks, and the fire makes rapid headway. A good rain would extinguish these fires and put an end to the fears of many settlers residing in districts where the fire has, as yet, failed to visit.

FIRES BURNING OUT.

Residents on the Town on the Michigan Range Greatly Relieved.

DULUTH, Minn., June 20.—A special from the Iron range says: The forest fires which have been raging in this vicinity for several days have about burned out and every one is greatly relieved. The scene at the ruins of the town of Iron is most appalling. With the exception of the few buildings at the end of Maple street and a chance residence here and there to the south and west, all is a bare, blackened waste, with occasional piles of smoking debris marking the site of some late business houses. One almost incredible thing in connection with the catastrophe was that two or three men were caught kindling fires in several of the houses. The object was evidently for purposes of robbery, and in the confusion all escaped. Capture would have been followed with lynching. The tough element have been making money speculating in the destruction of property. The citizens and roughs had quite a severe encounter this morning and Sheriff Sharkey of Duluth has been telegraphed for protection.

KING OF FORGEES.

A Louisville Man Makes His Parents Among His Victims.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 20.—A special from Lexington, Ky., says: F. N. Seavey, a young real estate dealer of this city, slipped out last Sunday after perpetrating a forgery which caused the death of his father. He not only forged the names of individuals, but went further and forged acknowledgments of the county clerk in registering deeds and mortgages. All told his forgeries netted him about $15,000, which he was using in buying cheap speculations. His own father and mother were his victims. His friends held a meeting and attempted to straighten out his affairs, but when confronted with his forgeries they gave the matter up. His present whereabouts are unknown.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, June 20.—At Flat Prairie yesterday the negroes held a big emancipation day celebration. A row started between two factions, one led by Lije Tapin and the other by Adam Watson. Knives and pistols held full sway for half an hour, both sides fighting fiercely. Many on both sides were badly wounded. Watson was riddled with bullets and knife wounds in leading an onslaught on the Tapin party, while Sam Taylor and three others on the other side were killed. The place is some distance from town and full details of the sanguinary conflict cannot be learned.

TENEMENT HOUSE HORROR.

Several Persons Supposed to Have Cremated at Duluth.

DULUTH, Minn., June 21.—The Bunell building, a five-story frame structure and a regular fire trap, was destroyed by fire shortly after midnight. In the building were four stores, two saloons and two newspaper plants and eighteen persons, many of women and children, occupied the upper story. The fire started from an unknown cause. At the point where it originated there was no possible source of access to the fire. The total loss was about $40,000, with a total insurance which will not exceed $12,000. There is every reason to fear the loss of life, though no details can be secured. Chief Smith of the fire department states that when he arrived women and children were at the windows, but that before the ladders could be raised all escape in that direction was cut off. Those who did escape saved nothing but their night clothes. They scattered at once and no list can be secured.

No List to Death.

MILWAUKEE, June 20.—The body of an unknown man about 50 years old, with papers in his clothing which indicated that he was from Fargo, North Dakota, was found in the Brule river this morning. The body was badly burned, and it is thought the stranger died in an attempt to escape from a forest fire that swept over the place where he was found.
